
THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Holy Eucharist: Rite I

March 30, 2025
8:00am and
10:30am and Live-Streamed on Facebook

We invite you to join as an active participant in the worship of God. The worship service can be found in the red Book of Common Prayer (found in the pew racks) beginning on page 355. The scripture readings and the Prayers of the People are printed in the worship bulletin. Scripture texts are taken from the Revised Common Lectionary. We use the red Book of Common Prayer, the blue 1982 Hymnal, and Lift Every Voice and Sing II Hymnal, all located in the pew racks.

In the time before our worship begins, please be mindful of those who need this time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Newcomers and visitors, we welcome you warmly. May you find here, by the grace of God, that which feeds your soul.

The mission of Christ Church Episcopal is to live, love, and serve boldly together in the name of Jesus Christ.

HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

THE WORD OF GOD

Liturgical Procession will enter the Nave in silence.

Penitential order Rite I BCP p. 319

Opening Acclamation BCP p. 319

Confession of Sins BCP p. 320

Absolution BCP p. 321

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, stands and says

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

When this Order is used at the beginning of the Liturgy, the service continues with the Kyrie eleison, the Trisagion, or the Gloria in excelsis.

When used separately, it concludes with suitable prayers, and the Grace or a blessing.

Kyrie Hymnal #S-90

Collect of the Day BCP p. 325

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which giveth life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Joshua 5:9-12

A reading from the Book of Prophet Joshua.

The Lord said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal to this day. While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 32 Beati quorum BCP p. 624

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 5:16-21

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

From now on, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands."' So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate. Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.' Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!' Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"

Prayers of the People

The Deacon or other person appointed says

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church and the world.

After each paragraph of this prayer, the People may make an appropriate response, as directed.

Celebrant: Almighty God, as Jesus taught us through the parable of the prodigal son, we pray for those who feel lost and distant from You. May they find their way back to Your loving embrace and experience the joy of reconciliation. Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Almighty God, as Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, guide us through our own times of trial and temptation. Strengthen us to resist the allure of sin and to follow Your path of righteousness.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for the Church, that it may be a place of welcome and forgiveness for all who seek Your grace. We pray especially Sean, our Presiding Bishop, Robert, our Bishop, Edgar and Dan, our clergy. Strengthen our faith and help us to embody Your love in our communities.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We lift up those who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit, especially Jack, Heather, John, Mary Ann, Rolando, Bob, Jenny, Debanhi, George, Judy & Richard, Patrice, Graham, Ron, and Val. Comfort them with Your healing presence and surround them with Your love. We pray especially for those we now name silently or aloud...

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: As the father in the parable welcomed his lost son with open arms, help us to extend Your compassion and forgiveness to those who have wronged us. Teach us to love as You love, without condition or limit.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for the nations of the world, especially those experiencing conflict and division. Bring peace to troubled lands and guide us to be instruments of Your peace. We pray for our leaders, especially Donald, our president, Brian, our governor, Nicole, our county chair, and Craig, our mayor, and for those who serve in the Armed Forces: Jeff, Daniel, and Andrew, to work for the common good.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We give thanks for the many blessings You have bestowed upon us. Open our hearts to recognize Your goodness in our lives and to share Your love with those around us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We remember those who have died and now rest in Your eternal peace, especially James Pernini, father of Kathy Smith; and Paula Sizemore, aunt of Brook Sizemore. Grant them eternal rest and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People may add their own petitions.

Leader: For those who minister to others, especially the Neighborhood Cooperative Ministries, Rainbow Village, our Thrift Shop volunteers, our Stephen Ministers and those for whom they care, our Path to Shine volunteers, and for our Vestry.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For members of our parish that we pray for this day:

Wilifred & Diana Rodriguez Gomez;

Cassandra Goolsby;

Miguel Gopar & Adriana Espinoza;
Glen & Karen Gordon;
Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Gracious God, as we journey through this Lenten season, draw us closer to You. Fill us with Your Spirit, that we may grow in faith and love, and be transformed into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

SIGN UP TO HOST COFFEE HOUR

Hosting coffee hour is a wonderful way to serve our church community! We're looking for volunteers to provide light refreshments and a welcoming space for fellowship between and after Sunday services in the Parish Hall. You can sign up alone or with a friend to bring a few sweet treats OR a few savory treats. We are also looking for donations of packaged snacks to put out after the 1:00 service. It's easy, fun, and a great way to meet new people. Whether you're a seasoned host or trying it for the first time, we'd love to have you! Use the QR code (to the left) or this link <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60B0E48A4AD2DA5FD0-fallwinter> to access the Signup Genius or Contact Kathy Smith at smithd106@gmail.com for more information. Let's keep the coffee flowing and the conversations going!

CANDY DONATIONS NEEDED FOR EASTER EGG HUNT

Easter is quickly approaching on April 20th! We will have our traditional Easter egg hunt for kids AND an egg hunt for adults! Please donate individually wrapped candy, which are free from common allergens such as nuts. We need to receive these donations no later Than Wednesday, April 2, 2025, to allow ample time to fill the eggs. Candy can be dropped off in breezeway area between the Narthex and Webster Hall.

LENTEN DINNERS AND PROGRAMS WEDNESDAY NIGHTS CONTINUE THROUGH APRIL 9, 2025

Please join us on Wednesday nights during Lent and continuing through April 9, 2025, for a light dinner of soup, salad, bread, etc. A sign-up sheet to bring soup and/or salad is in the Narthex. Dinner begins at 6:30pm in Webster Hall, followed by our program, "Growing Up In Christ," from 7pm until 8pm. See page 10 for the remaining list of Holy Day services through Easter Sunday.

ADULT FORUM SUNDAYS DURING LENT AT 9:15AM, IN R00M 107 OF THE ED. WING

This set of Adult Forums ties the Easter Vigil readings to the seven practices of the Way of Love. Drawing on the ancient practice of setting aside Lent as a period of study and preparation for living as a Christian disciple (known as the catechumenate), the forums encourage participants to reflect on salvation history; walk toward the empty tomb; and embrace the transforming reality of love, life, and liberation. As we stand with the three women at the empty tomb, we hear his call to go and live that transformed reality.

LENTEN PROJECT--NEW SOCKS FOR NEIGHBORHOOD COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES (NCM)

We will be collecting NEW socks for the families served by NCM. Socks are needed in all sizes (children’s, women’s, and men’s) and in any color. Please place your items in the box located in the breezeway between the Narthex and Webster Hall by Maundy Thursday April 17th. Thank you for your ongoing support of NCM. If you have any questions, reach out to Deacon Dan at deacon@ccnorcross.org.

EASTER EGG HUNTS

We will have our traditional Easter egg hunt for kids AND an egg hunt for adults! These will take place immediately after the 10:30 service on Easter Sunday, April 20th. The kids hunt will be first, followed by the adult hunt. Don’t forget your Easter baskets. Enjoy!

FIRE / EMERGENCY LANE AREA REQUEST

We recently had a medical emergency and called 911 for assistance, which included a fire engine and an EMS vehicle. It was observed that we, including Fr. Edgar, were parking in our emergency/fire lane on the backside of the church building. So that we stay in compliance with all fire and emergency codes, we kindly ask that you avoid parking in the driveway area from the front corner of the church to the back parking lot. This includes the space between the kitchen and the shed. Loading and unloading is ok for a few minutes, but please move your vehicles to the designated parking areas—front of the church, 2 gravel lots, and if necessary, in the back parking lot in front of the picnic area. We need to ensure that this space remains clear for all emergency vehicles to access our facilities quickly and efficiently. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation in keeping our community safe.
